LEGAL RIGHTS OF WOMEN –WOMEN'S DAY CELEBRATION

Date: 7/03/2023

International Women's Day is celebrated worldwide on 8th March. It provides a chance to consider how far we have come to advocate for change, and to honour the bravery and tenacity of everyday women who made exceptional contributions to the world.

Objectives

- To increase awareness about the persistent gender disparities in various aspects of life, including education, employment, healthcare, and representation in decision-making roles.
- To disseminate information about the importance of gender equality for social and economic development.
- To advocate for the protection of women's rights and the elimination of discriminatory practices and laws.

Amala College of Nursing conducted a gender equity programme on 07.03.2023 as a part of the Women's Day celebration. The resource person of the programme was Adv. Reena John N, ICC member, KUHS, Legal counsellor under women and child development department. She mainly talked about the legal rights of women. Through this session, she could reach different legal aspects of women and the challenges they face commonly.

WOMEN'S EQUALITY DAY

Women's Equality Day has been celebrated annually on August 26. The celebration falls on the anniversary of the ratification of the 19th Amendment which granted women the right to vote. On 26/07/2022 an awareness session was organized in Amala College of Nursing to recognise the women's right. The session was based on the theme 'Hard Won...Not Done'.

OBJECTIVES

- To increase awareness about the persistent gender disparities in various aspects of life.
- To disseminate information about the importance of gender equality for social and economic development.
- To advocate for the protection of women's rights and the elimination of discriminatory practices and laws.
